20 On December 2, 2014, the Court convened a telephonic Case Management Conference to 21 discuss the status of compliance with the settlement agreement. The attorneys for both parties 22 advised the Court that the parties have not yet executed the settlement agreement but anticipate 23 executing the agreement soon. Based upon the counsel's representations, the Court finds it 24 necessary to set a follow-up Case Management Conference ("CMC") to verify the execution of the
